The success or failure of any government in the final analysis must be measured by the well-being of its citizens. Nothing can be more important to a state than its public health; the state's paramount concern should be the health of its people.

Franklin D. Roosevelt

The Program
The Master of Business Administration with Area of Study in Healthcare Management is a 39-credit program that can be completed within 18 months. It is organized in three sections: 1) Core Courses providing foundational business content; 2) Healthcare Management Courses delivering advanced course work healthcare finance, strategic management, legal issues, systems and operations; 3) Elective Courses offering associated topics of interest.

Program Overview
Program Components
- Core Courses: 15 credits
- Elective Courses: 12 credits
- Area of Study Courses: 12 credits
  - Healthcare Finance
  - Strategic Management in a Healthcare Organization
  - Legal Issues in Healthcare
  - Healthcare Operations and Systems

Healthcare Management: The Future of Healthcare: From Triage to Transformation!
America's healthcare systems require revitalization. Citizens, through governmental action, are mandating comprehensive, responsible, and affordable healthcare reform and delivery. Establishing and achieving key milestones associated with healthcare reform will advance the work of this generation of healthcare professionals to effectively navigate, innovate, and manage current and future healthcare systems.

How is Thomas Edison State College's MBA Unique?
- Program Length - Can be completed in 18 months by enrolling in consecutive eight-week courses.
- Credit For Prior Learning - Earn credit for professional certifications and/or expertise.
- Prerequisite Courses - Select from several options for satisfying program prerequisites.
- Instructional Delivery - Courses are offered completely online with no physical residency requirements.
- Affordability - The approximate cost for completing the MBA is $25,000.* This is a significant value when compared with other public, regionally accredited business schools.

*Based on 2012-2013 Thomas Edison State College tuition.