The Program

The Master of Business Administration is a 39-credit program that can be completed within 18 months. Students can pursue an MBA with elective courses or select one of four areas of study. The MBA curriculum is organized in three sections: 1) Core Courses provide course work in key foundational business disciplines including Financial Management, Marketing and Global Strategic Management; 2) Elective Courses provide topic-specific knowledge in topics-of-interest areas such as Human Resources Management and Social Media; and 3) Areas of Study deliver advanced course work in four areas: Data Analytics; Finance; Healthcare Management; or Marketing.

Who Should Apply?

The curriculum is designed for career minded professionals who want to continue their education, realize their professional potential and increase their career opportunities. The program prepares students to attain leadership positions in multinational companies, nonprofit organizations and entrepreneurial enterprises.

Earn an MBA from Thomas Edison State College

In today’s knowledge-based global economy, business professionals are expected to possess sophisticated content matter expertise and self-management skills. Organizational leaders, managers and contributors must demonstrate critical-thinking, strategic-planning and data-analysis competencies that can enable enterprises to achieve marketplace competitive advantage. As global businesses expand and markets become increasingly complex, organizational stakeholders will need to adapt to the scope, intensity and relentlessness of market changes and continually reinvent themselves in order to compete, survive and sustain.
